Council Briefs

- Penrith Producers is kicking off 2024 down by the Nepean River! Join us on Sunday, 24 March from 9am-2pm at Tench Reserve for a day of market shopping, delicious food and drinks, free kids' activities and live music.

You won't want to miss it! Support local businesses as we celebrate the local producers, artists and makers we have right here in Penrith.

For more information go to penrith.city/penrithproducers

- Do you know someone who could be Penrith's 2024 Young Citizen of the Year? The Local Celebration Awards are an opportunity to recognise and celebrate the people in our community who dedicate their time to making Penrith a great place to live.

Our next Young Citizen of the Year will be aged 24 or younger and achieved in academics, sport, the arts, charity or community service work. Give an outstanding young person the recognition they deserve!

Find out more about the Awards and how to nominate at penrith.city/local-celebration-awards

- Experience the vibrant flavours, colours and sounds of the world at Culture Fusion, on Saturday, 23 March 2024, as part of Harmony Week.

Immerse yourself in rhythm at a drumming workshop, or sample cuisine from the Middle East, Mexico, Italy and more! And best of all, it's free to attend from 4-9pm at Lang Park, 9 Carinya Avenue, St Marys.

Funding for this project has been provided by the NSW Government through Multicultural NSW in partnership with St Marys Town Centre and Penrith City Council.

Find out more at penrith.city/culturefusion

- Join us in switching off your lights for Earth Hour.

On Saturday, 23 March from 8.30-9.30pm, Council is participating for its 17th year in turning off non-essential lights at our facilities for an hour in solidarity with thousands across the country.

Earth Hour is a great way to take sustainable action in protecting our planet.
