Council Briefs

- There's 10 local dog parks and off-leash areas across the local government area to enjoy, now that the Gipps Street Recreation Precinct dog park is open!

The fenced dog park features separate areas for small and large dogs to ensure that dogs of all sizes can play safely. Dog-friendly drinking fountains, bins, dog waste bag dispensers, bench seating and shaded picnic tables have also been installed.

The precinct is located at 34 Gipps Street, Claremont Meadows NSW 2747. It is open from 6am until 10.30pm daily. To find your nearest dog park or off-leash area, visit penrith.city/dogparks

- Council's Civic Centre, St Marys Service Desk, and Library branches will be operating with shortened hours on Friday 20 December. Library branches will be operating on shortened hours on Tuesday 24 December before all branches and offices close for the Christmas and New Year break.

Library branches and offices will reopen Thursday 2 January 2025 under normal operating hours. The eLibrary and Online Services Portal will be accessible during the closure period.

- Penrith City Council has completed the new amenities building at The Kingsway in Werrington.

A key part of the upgrade is the elevation of the new building's footprint to help mitigate future flood risks. Local touch football, OzTag, and cricket clubs will benefit from accessible toilets, including a MLAK-fitted 'Changing Places' facility for people with high support requirements.

The upgrade also includes dedicated change rooms for officials, bathroom facilities with showers, a designated first aid area, increased storage, as well as an improved canteen. New accessible pathways and landscaping including new tree planting have provided a welcome update to the sporting precinct.

This project was funded by the NSW Government and Penrith City Council and forms part of Council's 15-year Sport and Recreation Strategy.

- Construction of the Nepean Avenue Pathway project is nearly complete, with only a few finishing touches left to be added in January 2025. The great news is that the new pedestrian pathway is ready to use, and all pedestrian and traffic diversions have been removed.

Pedestrians are encouraged to use the pathway when walking along Nepean Avenue and completing the bridge-to-bridge loop.

Pedestrians include people who are walking, running, pushing a bicycle, in a wheelchair, using a mobility scooter or motorised wheelchair or using a skateboard, foot scooter or rollerblades.

Children under 16 and supervising adults can also ride bicycles on the pathway. Riders must keep left and give way to pedestrians when riding on a pathway.

The project will be complete once the permanent bollards are installed along the pathway in January 2025. Temporary bollards are in place in the interim.
