COUNCIL BRIEFS

- Don't miss the final Open Streets Penrith event this Friday, 20 May from 6–10pm as we eat, drink, discover and create together. Celebrate the amazing restaurants we have right here in Penrith and dine with us at the long table. With art and fun on the menu as well as live entertainment from musicians and comedians, Penrith is ready to party. Bring your friends along and meet some new ones!

- Penrith City Council has created the Penrith Heritage Walk – an invitation to step into our City's rich past and discover the people, places and open spaces that have helped shaped Penrith. Funded by Council and an Australian Government grant, the walk will appeal to visitors, local families, history buffs and school groups. The app guides walkers to 22 points of interest on an 11-kilometres trail from Penrith Train Station, through Thornton and along the river to finish at Emu Plains Train Station.

- Did you know it's possible to save money around your home while also doing your bit to save the planet? Find out more about how you can reduce your household's carbon footprint by coming along to our free information session on 'How to Transition to an All-Electric Home'.

Council is delivering this workshop in partnership with the Australian Energy Foundation and Endeavour Energy to give you simple steps to start creating a more comfortable and energy-efficient home. The online event will be held on Monday, 23 May from 6.30–8pm.

- This week has been National Road Safety Week (15–22 May), an annual initiative from the Safer Australian Roads and Highways (SARAH) Group, partnering road safety organisations and Government, which serves as a timely reminder to take care on our roads. Join us as we take the pledge to drive so others survive – remember that it's everyone's right to get home safely.
