COUNCIL BRIEFS

- Do you have excessive green waste from this week's storms? Penrith City Council is offering residents the collection of tree and garden waste materials.
To arrange collection of tree branches and other green waste that will not fit in your existing green bin, please call Council on 4732 7777 to book your collection. Collections will commence from Monday 28 February for three weeks. The green waste material can be left on the nature strip for collection. Flood damaged bulky items can be collected by booking a standard bulky waste collection.
Go to my.penrith.city to book.
- To combat the scorching heat in our community during summer, the Urban Heat Planning Controls Package is on public exhibition until Monday, 7 March 2022.
The new proposal is to amend the Penrith Local Environmental Plan (LEP) 2010. This is to ensure there's effective planning and design to decrease urban heat in new developments in residential, business, industrial, special purpose, recreation, RU5 Village and C4 Environmental Living zones.
The proposed amendment to the Penrith Development Control Plan (DCP) 2014 aims to introduce a new Urban Heat chapter that includes cool colours and materials to reduce heat absorption and reflectivity, adequate air circulation for buildings and optimising mechanical heating and cooling.
There will also be controls to retain existing trees and plant new trees, with a focus on tree numbers, species, irrigation and soil volume.
For further details and to provide your feedback, visit yoursaypenrith.com.au/urbanheat or email cityplanning@penrith.city
- Community consultation is open on the draft design for Nepean Avenue Shared Pathway.
The proposed new 2.5m wide tinted concrete path will deliver a critical missing link on the Great River Walk by completing the Bridge-to-Bridge loop. It will run along the western side of Nepean Avenue between Tench Reserve and Memorial Avenue in Penrith.
Consultation closes on Friday, 11 March. Don't miss the chance to have your say.
To find out more, visit yoursaypenrith.com.au/nepeanavenue
This project is proudly funded by the NSW Government in association with Penrith City Council.

- Penrith City Council is embarking on an aspiring strategic plan to guide the future of St Marys, Penrith's second largest town centre, and emerging strategic centre in greater Sydney.

St Marys is undergoing major transformation coinciding with the delivery of the Sydney Metro Western Sydney Airport rail line connecting St Marys directly to the Western Sydney Airport, and new city of Bradfield from 2026.

With this transformation in mind, Council is gathering information from St Marys residents, businesses and visitors to develop a Structure Plan for St Marys Town Centre and surrounds that will guide planning and development in line with community aspirations and vision for the future of the city.
