

Cranebrook Demographic Snapshot

Cranebrook is an older established suburb of Penrith City LGA, with a community that is changing.

- We are young and family orientated.
- We have a large First Nations population.
- We predominantly live in separate houses.
- We have a mix of people who own and rent their houses.
- We have lower levels of rental and mortgage stress.

We are young and family orientated.

The median age is 33.

Almost 55% of households are families.

We have a large First Nations population.

7% of the Cranebrook population is Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander – higher than the wider Penrith City LGA (5%).

We predominantly live in separate houses.

Most residents of Cranebrook (88%) live in separate houses and many own their own home with a mortgage.

Many of us live in separate houses, owned outright or with a mortgage.

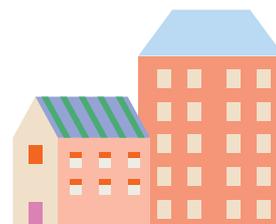

● Cranebrook ● Penrith City LGA

We have lower levels of rental and mortgage stress.

14%
17%
are experiencing mortgage stress

32%
35%
are experiencing rental stress

● Cranebrook ● Penrith City LGA