

Kingswood Demographic Snapshot

Kingswood is growing and transforming, capitalising on its proximity to key health precincts, educational institutions and transport infrastructure.

- We are growing.
- We are very diverse.
- We live equally in separate houses or in medium/high-density dwellings.
- We have residents in need of assistance to live well.
- We increasingly value higher education.

Kingswood is growing.

9,301 2016
14,260 2021

We are culturally diverse.

Approximately one third (32%) of our population was born overseas. This number has grown by 4% since 2016.

4.5% of our population are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander.

30% speak a language other than English at home, compared to 20% of Penrith's wider population.

We live equally in separate houses or in medium/high-density dwellings.

50%
separate house

34%
medium density

16%
high density

We have residents in need of additional support to live well.

6.4% need assistance due to disability.

We increasingly value higher education.

23%

of people in Kingswood had a Bachelor or Higher degree qualification in 2021, higher than the Penrith City LGA, at 17%.

52%

of people in Kingswood aged over 15 years had completed Year 12 schooling (or equivalent) as of 2021. Since 2016, this has increased by 6%.

