

Penrith LGA Demographic Snapshot

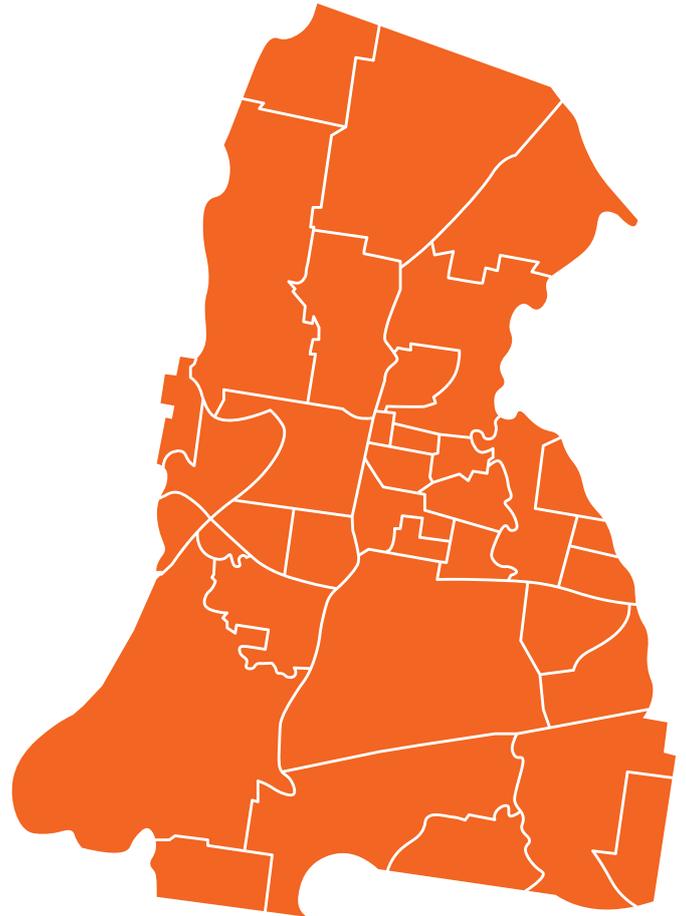

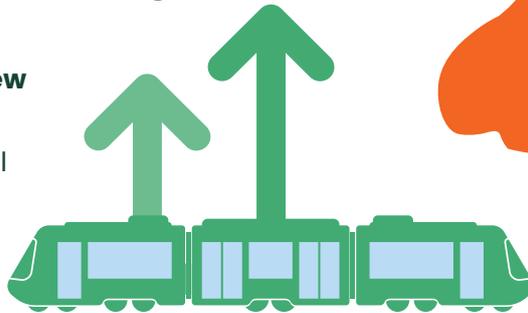

Penrith is transforming, unlocking a wealth of opportunities for our community and building on the strong quality of life offered here.

- More people are calling Penrith home.
- Diversity is our strength.
- We are young and family orientated.
- We're building our knowledge and skills.
- Improving quality of life is important to us.

Penrith is transforming

Major infrastructure and investment is creating new opportunities and jobs.

The number of residential dwellings is increasing with significant growth in medium-density and high-density housing.

More people are calling Penrith home

Since 2016, we've gained almost 18,000 residents, growing by 9%.

Our population is set to increase by almost 100,000

residents by

2041

2021 population: 219, 149

Diversity is our strength

5% of our population are First Nations peoples.

20% speak a language other than English at home, with over 80 languages spoken.

23% of our residents were born overseas and represent over 110 countries.

We are young and family orientated

The median age is 35.

49% are households with children.

While we are young, our 65+ population is expected to see significant growth by 2041.

We're building our knowledge and skills

The number of people completing Year 12 improved by 5%

since 2016.

The proportion of residents with a Bachelor's degree or higher increased by 4%

since 2016.

Employment rates have increased by

1.5%
since 2016.

Improving quality of life is important to us

5.5% of our community needs assistance due to disability.

32% of the population have at least one long-term health condition.

