Direct Debit Request Service Agreement

- This facility is not available for credit cards.
- The first deduction will occur on the next instalment due date.
- The first deduction amount will include all amounts due by the first deduction date.
- Each quarterly instalment amount will be automatically paid from your Bank, Building Society or Credit Union account on the last day of August, November, February and May.
- Council will provide you with a minimum of 14 days notice to change the terms of this agreement.
- An instalment notice will still be issued to you approximately one month before each due date.
- To cancel this direct debit, you can: email council@penrith.city or call the Rates Section on 024732 7777 (Mon-Fri, 8.30am to 4pm).
- Direct Debit through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System (BECS) is not available on all accounts so please check with your financial institution.
- Please ensure that on the due date of each payment cleared funds are available in your account.
- If the Direct Debit falls on a non-business day it will be drawn on the next business day.
- Please note: If a payment is declined by your nominated financial institution because there are insufficient funds, Council will apply a dishonour fee.
